Special Exhibitions

All Exhibitions are FREE to view during museum opening times

Opening Out: Womens' Lives in Harrow 1970-2000

12th October - 30th January

Main Exhibition Room

The Equal Pay Act of 1970 ushered in an era of new social change for women in Britain. This exhibition documents women-led projects and campaigns from different communities in Harrow. It aims to showcase the passion, dedication and strength of local women from the 1970s to the millennium to inspire future generations.

Diwali in Harrow: A Celebration of Culture

2nd - 30th November

The Great Hall

To celebrate Diwali this year, we're delighted to launch an exhibition which was kindly supported by London Museums Development Fund under their Diversity Matters Grant. This exhibition has been co-curated with Mental Wealth and aims to share stories about Diwali from local individuals and businesses in Harrow.

Community Cupboard

M for Menopause

28th September - 24th October
Community Cupboard

Currently, 13 million women are going through the menopause in the UK and this figure is rising. Each year, on 18th October, the International Menopause Society (IMS) encourages awareness of menopause worldwide. However, M for Menopause believes the conversation should also be normalised throughout society, all year through.

This exhibition has been co-curated with M for Menopause's founder, Madhu Kapoor. Madhu, a South Asian woman based in Harrow, faced a horrific menopause journey which has affected her physically and psychologically in life.

Celebrating Gregory Isaacs

26th October - 30th January
Community Cupboard

For Black History Month 2021 we are celebrating a musical icon, the legendary Jamaican Reggae Singer Gregory 'Cool Ruler' Isaacs, coinciding with his Memorial Day. We're delighted to be able to co-curate a small exhibition in our community cupboard within the Manor House and a digital exhibition. This project is supported by the Gregory Isaacs Foundation (UK) and co-curated by Abigail Bernard from Story Finders.

Digital Exhibitions

FREE to view online at any time

Kodak in Harrow – Celebrating the 130th Anniversary

6th - 30th September

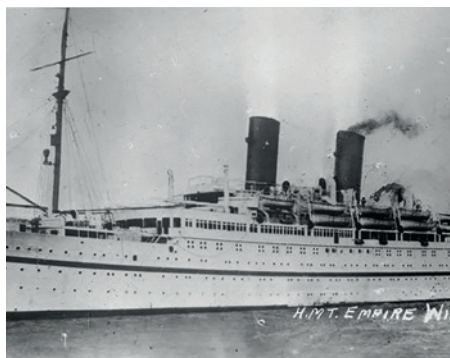

To celebrate the 130th anniversary since the Kodak factory opened its doors in Harrow, we're excited to launch a digital exhibition showcasing its history as well as the many faces of the people who worked there. Through oral histories and memories, this exhibition will highlight historic moments in Kodak's history in Harrow. A film will be available to view in this exhibition featuring recent oral histories recorded in 2021.

Harrow is the Place for Me: Documenting Windrush stories in the Borough

1st - 31st October

To mark Windrush Day this year, Harrow Council together with partner community organisations were successful in gaining funding to support activities. Headstone Manor & Museum have collaborated with Harrow African Caribbean Association to co-curate a digital exhibition featuring oral histories from individuals in the local community. The exhibition aims to share the history of the Windrush generation moving to Britain and to Harrow, featuring stories around work life, home life and social life from 1948 until the present day.

Heritage Open Day

Welcome to our new Local History Research Room

Sunday 12th September, 11am-3pm

FREE

To launch our recently renovated research room, we're hosting a Harrow History day where you can explore our library, collections, store room and chat with our Curator and recently appointed Archivist! This is a rare chance to go behind the scenes, talk to staff and discover history in your borough!

The poster features a central illustration of five characters in a circular frame against a dark green background. At the top is the 'TALEGATE THEATRE PRODUCTIONS' logo. The characters include a woman in a pink robe, a boy with glasses in a green robe, a man in a black suit, a boy in a white shirt, and a woman in a black hat. A green frog is at the bottom right. The title 'Harry Panto' is in a large, stylized font, with 'RETURN TO FROGWARTS' below it. A red banner at the bottom reads 'A WIZARD PARODY PANTO THAT'S SIRIUS-LY FUNNY'.
