

Headstone Manor & Museum Copyright and Takedown Policy

Photographs and images on the Headstone Manor & Museum website are subject to copyright. This includes images within object records on our online catalogue.

Headstone Manor & Museum has undertaken due diligence to ensure that images are reproduced with the consent of the copyright holders. However, the Museum has not been able to trace all copyright holders, especially for older material in the museum or archive. Any information or enquiries regarding our copyright policy should email collections@headstonemanor.org.

As a visitor to our website, you are permitted to view the images and download them for personal use and private study. You may share images which are watermarked © London Borough of Harrow/Headstone Manor Museum on social media. However, images which are marked with other copyright notices (e.g. © Francis Frith) may not be shared on social media. The reason for this is because social media does not qualify as 'personal use' under copyright law.

We recognize our responsibility to ensure the accuracy of copyright information provided on the catalogue. However, we are not liable for any breach of copyright law made by users when using content displayed on our site.

High resolution images of our collection are available for purchase and license. If you'd like to contact us regarding reproducing images from the catalogue please email us on collections@headstonemanor.org. Fees and charges are available to view here.

Headstone Manor & Museum works with a takedown policy. We will remove images if contacted by the copyright holder, or make suitable adjustments to the catalogue entry. If you believe you hold the rights to one of the images you see on our catalogue, please email collections@headstonemanor.org with the following information:

- Contact details (name, email address, phone number)
- The object Reference Number/Object number
- The nature of the complaint
- A statement that you are the copyright holder/are authorised to act on behalf of the copyright holder. You may be required to provide proof of this ownership.
