

Find these historical characters around Headstone Manor. Draw their portraits once you've found them!

Start in the Small Barn.

Doinus is the first named person who we know lived in Harrow.

What did he do and how do we know his name?

You will find Janie Terrero in a drawer upstairs in the Manor House in Industrial Harrow.

Who was she and why was she arrested in March 1912?

Find out about Daniel Dancer in the Georgian Room.

Which famous book character did he inspire?

Francis Rewse is in the Stuart Room.

Which side was he on during the Civil War?

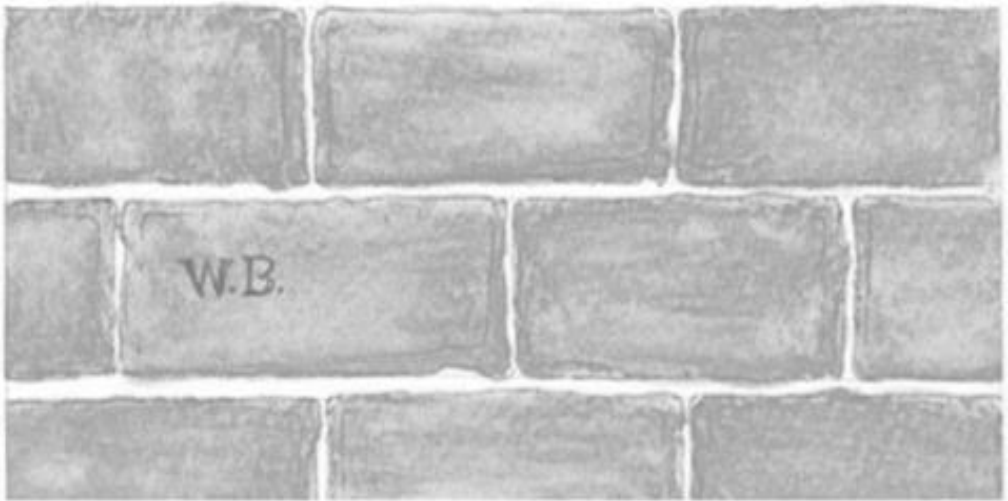

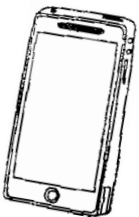

John de Stratford was the Archbishop of Canterbury from 1333-1348.

Why is he important to the history of Headstone Manor? You will find the answer in the Great Hall.

Find the letters on scratched into the outside wall of the Manor House. Add your initials or sign on this page (not on our 300-year-old wall please!)

Now that you have explored the museum. Can you decide which object...

- ... is the most boring? #HMMboring
- ... you would give to someone as a gift? #HMMgift
- ... you would save in a fire? #HMMsave
